

Rich Treasure Trove.

A week or two ago it was reported that an immense "plant" had been dug up at San Jose, amounting to several thousand dollars. Believing the rumor to be an idle sensation, we made no mention of it at the time, but Dr. Gelcich writes that a large amount of treasure was found in the cellar of the old Bernal family mansion, which is said to amount to $500,000 in dust and slugs. Mme. Bernal was Mrs. Gelcich's grandmother, and owned the ranch on which San Jose now stands, besides immense herds of cattle. After her death many attempts were made to find her buried treasure, but all proved fruitless, and the gold has at last turned up by accident. Suit will be at once begun by Mrs. Gelcich and other heirs for the treasure trove.—San Diego (Cal.) Union.

We Guarantee

The successful operation of all stoves of our manufacture, and particularly the Charter Oak cooking stove, Evening Star parlor stove for wood and Soft Coal Base Burner "Headlight" for office stove. A careful comparison will satisfy the closest buyer that our prices are fully as low, if not lower, than those of any stoves in the market of a corresponding weight, and capacity of oven. We use only the very best materials, and spare neither expense nor labor to produce as near perfect goods as possible. Our stoves can be found for sale in all first-class stove stores in the principal towns and cities of the West and South.

—A good story is told of Chivae, the Duke of Orleans' physician. He never noticed that he was ill, being so anxious about the health of others, but one day he felt his own pulse and said, "He's a dead man. I have been called in too late."

A FAIR PROPOSITION.

DR. TUTT authorizes his agents to refund the money in every case where his Hair Dye fails. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. It acts like magic—easily applied, and is perfectly natural. Sold by all respectable Druggists. 18 Murray Street, N. Y.

IF you feel dull, drowsy, debilitated, have frequent headache, mouth tastes badly, poor appetite and tongue coated, you are suffering from torpid liver, or "biliousness," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently as

Ask the recovered Dyspeptic, Bilious sufferer, victims of Fever and Ague, the mercurial diseased patient, how they recovered health, cheerful spirits and good appetite—they will tell you by taking Simmons' Liver Regulator.

BAD BREATH!

Nothing is so unpleasant, nothing so common, as bad breath, and in nearly every case it comes from the stomach, and can be so easily corrected if you will take Simmons' Liver Regulator. Do not neglect so sure a remedy for this repulsive disorder. It will also improve your Appetite, Complexion and General Health.

SICK HEADACHE!

This distressing affliction occurs most frequently. The disturbance of the stomach, arising from the imperfectly digested contents, causes a severe pain in the head, accompanied by disagreeable nausea, and this constitutes what is popularly known as Sick Headache. From Hon. ALEXANDER H. STEPHENS, dated March 8, 1872: "I occasionally use when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect. It is mild, and suits me better than more active remedies."

AN EFFICACIOUS REMEDY.

"I can recommend, as an efficacious remedy for all diseases of the Liver, Heartburn and Dyspepsia, Simmons' Liver Regulator."—LEWIS G. WOODEN, 1008 Master St., Assistant Postmaster, Philadelphia.

In this number are grouped many of the classic bits of literature, in prose and poetry, among which may be mentioned "The Ancient Mariner," by Coleridge; "The Red Fisherman," by Fray; "A Highland Snow Storm," by John Wilson; "The Dream of Eugene Aram," by Thomas Hood; "The Wife of Miletus," and "The Fate of Calchas," by Sir E. Who is there uniting the imagination, the passion, the humor, the energy, the knowledge of the heart, the artist-like eye, the originality, the fancy, and the learning of Bulwer? In a vivid wit—in profundity, and a lofty and manlyness of thought—in style—in a calm certainty of definiteness of purpose—in industry—and, above all, in the power of controlling and regulating, by volition, his limitless faculties of mind, he is unequalled.—Nathan A. Fox. Illustrated with a fine portrait of the author. Price 10 cents. By mail 12 cents.
